

CLASS BREAKDOWN BY WEEK:

Week 1

Introduction of class objectives. Share children's stories and discuss their basic structure. Begin discussion of story ideas for students to pursue as for their class project.

Week 2

Continue discussion initiated during Week 1. In-class exercise, "Names have been changed (fairy tale)." Share and discuss. Finalize/confirm student story ideas for class project.

Week 3

In-class exercise "Tip for the day (fable)." Share and discuss. Work with students on their stories as well as plans for their book covers.

Week 4

In-class final touches on book covers and stories. Read/rehearse presentations among those students who wish to read their finished pieces.

Week 5

Open class - family and friends invited to attend and view the book cover art of the students, followed by a reading of their fairy tales.